

Hello from Heaven ~ Spiritual Gallery

Love... Love is what makes this such a beautiful gathering! Love can move mountains. Love can bring Heaven to Earth!

LOVE CONNECTS OUR ENERGIES. Love is what we are! Hello from Heaven Spiritual Gallery invites you to visit with your loved ones in Heaven and encourages you to embrace a continued relationship with them. They can't wait to remind you how much they love you, how proud they are of you, and how they are still by your side whispering to your heart, exactly what you need to know!

A Hello from Heaven ~ Spiritual Gallery gathering is a uniquely beautiful experience because Spirit knows exactly what we need most. Some spirits, just like some people, are chattier than others. Nikki makes every effort to divide the time as equally as possible among the group. Quite often, those that attend sessions find that they share a common bond with others in the group. Sometimes, new friendships are formed or a message directed to another is exactly what is needed to facilitate the healing process for many.

Nothing is by chance! I LOVE connecting with Spirit and I feel so very blessed when I am invited to facilitate a Hello from Heaven gathering. The time spent reuniting with our loved ones in Heaven is such a loving and blessed experience. I can't wait to share this time with you!
